

WCSR
Campus News
Jan 9, Monday
9PM
JS

Members of the senior class who were unable to take the Junior Professional Assistant examination on December third and who would like permission to take a special examination at a later date, are asked to report to the Vocational Office.

-----**-----

THURSDAY
FRIDAY
AS OFTEN AS POSSIBLE
"All Above Board," the second musical which SCADS has sponsored on campus, has its debut on January 14, Saturday, at 8:15. At this time the college will be treated to a sparkling show with original musical numbers and dance routines. This pre-exam presentation includes in its cast many students and faculty from both Smith and Amherst. Among the interesting list of characters are Mr. Madeira in the role of a filibustering Senator ; Mr. DeNood as a cowboy transplanted from his native wild and wooly west to the high and rough seas. Mr. Gilardino is a Russian straight from the Kremlin and loaded with all the newest scandal. Two ladies with Arscenic-and-Old-Lace tendencies are present in the forms of Darcy Fink, 52, and Jane Harper, 1950, while Peter Soderberg, of Amherst's Dramatic Association, is cast as a very mad inventor.

The show will put you in the right, light mood for exams. You may get tickets ^{TOMORROW} ~~next Friday~~ morning at Seelye Hall for 85 cents. The seats are unreserved and tickets will also be sold at the door on the evening of the performance.

-----**-----

Applications are being accepted for a student assistantship at the Mount Holyoke Institute on the United Nations. The third annual

1934
Jan 3, Monday
12

Members of the senior class who were unable to take the Junior Professional Assistant examination on December third and who would like permission to take a special examination at a later date, are asked to report to the Vocational Office.

"All Above Board," the school musical which STAN has announced as coming has its debut on January 14, Thursday, at 8:15. At this time the college will be treated to a sparkling show with original musical numbers and dance routines. This one-act presentation includes in its cast many students and faculty from both sexes and ages. Among the interesting list of contributors are Mr. Johnson in the role of a filibustering Senator; Mr. Johnson as a cowboy; Mrs. Johnson as his native wife and worthy wife to the high and mighty; Mr. Johnson as a Russian aristocrat from the Russian and joined with all the newest material. Two ladies with Arden and the face Landscapes are present in the form of Betty and Sue. Mrs. Johnson, 1930, with Peter Johnson, of Lakewood, Colorado, is cast as a very mad woman.

The show will run on the night, light show for extra. You may get tickets from Friday morning at twelve till for 50 cents. The seats are reserved and tickets will also be sold at the door on the evening of the performance.

Applications are being accepted for a student assistantship at the home before Institute on the United Nations. The salary is $100 per month.